

Anti-Corruption Alliance UNCAC Chile celebrating its 10th Anniversary

Representatives from the 33 institutions members of Anti-Corruption Alliance UNCAC Chile celebrating its 10th Anniversary

Under the leadership of the Office of the Comptroller General of the Republic of Chile (CGR), the Anti-corruption Alliance UNCAC Chile, which was a collective action initiative created in 2012 by the CGR and the United Nations Development Programme, celebrated its 10th anniversary on 13 December 2022 to mark International Anti-Corruption Day.

The event gathered authorities and representatives from its 33 institutions members of the public sector, private sector, academia, and the international community to launch the report entitled "Alianza Anticorrupción UNCAC Chile: 10 años trabajando por la integridad (Anti-corruption Alliance UNCAC Chile: 10 years promoting integrity). (The document is in Spanish only)

The report presented the main achievements of this network in the past ten years and highlighted the importance of continuing and strengthening this initiative.

During the event, the Comptroller General of the Republic of Chile, Mr.

Jorge Bermúdez, introduced the special edition on anti-corruption of the Revista Chilena de la Administración del Estado (Chilean Journal of the State Administration). This edition comprised ten articles providing insights into local administration, public assets management, behavioural science, lobby, and public-private partnerships, including the two award-winning articles of “Primer Congreso Estudiantil "Construye con ideas un Chile íntegro"”.
