

Mr. Renugasan Segara,
Senior Superintendent, Financial Analysis Division, MACC

Renugasan Segara has been with the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) since 2014. Currently he is ranked Senior Superintendent. His current role in the Financial Analysis Division is to conduct financial investigation, perform calculation on excessive wealth and conduct forensic analysis on financial statements and money trail. Previously he was working as an academician in one of the local university in Malaysia in the field of financial accounting and management accounting for 6 years.

Renugasan Segara possesses a Bachelor in Accounting (Hons) from National University of Malaysia in 2008 and has a Master of Professional Accounting from La Trobe University, Australia in 2011. He is a member of Malaysian Institute of Accountants (MIA) which carries the title of Chartered Accountant Malaysia ((C.A.(M))). He is also a Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist (CAMS).